Col. JAS H. GARRARD.

MONDAY JUNE 17 8 A M MISSOURI. - This patriotic Union State is threatened with a terrible affliction. It is to be not merely the theatre of a sectional war, but of a war among its own citizens also. We begin the state of a war among its own citizens also. We begin the state of general was another a work of a children was another to call, and the removal from office by ordinance of a present Governor and Legislature, with a provision for an immediate election of another took horses, carriages, provisions, and even men. to present Governor and Legislature, with a provious for an immediate election of another Governor and Loslature. The Convention of months of the first a passion of neutrality. With this the first rail Government would be content and the people of the State would have an early opportunity to place her in a proper position. We presented it is the amply the first and the proper content and the proper position.

We presume it will hardly be denied that the power of the Convention to remove the Governor and Legislature falls within the scope of suspending the writ of histories rospus are no the arms now distributed by good and true the authority customarily ascribed to State sticklers for any observance of laws or consti-men to good and true men would not be used Conventions lawfully constituted. The State Convention of Kentucky, we believe, actually They complained of no violation of constitution on by an overwhelming class, a free. Of same kind of material and brought it exercised this power, I v removing the Governor, ate. Whether the power is a regular one or not, the public safety would justify the exercise of the United States, subject to the laws thereof the power in the case of Missouri. Nay, we are constra acd to think the public safety yards, arsenals, mints, and revenue cutters, prevent it.
